PITTSBURGH – Thousands of people biking, walking, running, and rolling will take to Pittsburgh's streets next Saturday, June 29th from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. for OpenStreetsPGH presented by UPMC Health Plan. Produced by Bike Pittsburgh, this free community event opens 3.5 miles of car-free streets from the Historic Hill District to the Northside. This month's OpenStreetsPGH is the second of three events celebrating active transportation and people-centered places in Pittsburgh.

Car traffic will be prohibited on a 3.5-mile stretch: From Centre Ave in the Hill District, Ross St, Forbes Ave and 6th St in Downtown, to the Roberto Clemente Bridge, W General Robinson, W Ohio St, and Western Ave in the Northside.
